With 13 states, three Federal Territories, and a population of more than 34 million people, Malaysia combines the best of Asia and is well known for its diverse cultural landscape and a multiracial populace living together in harmony and peaceful co-existence—the Malay, Chinese, Indian, and the unique ethnic communities of Sabah and Sarawak.

Malaysia has it all—pristine beaches, breathtaking islands, a rich tapestry of cultures and history, well-preserved heritage cultures, world-class modern facilities, a fascinating collection of flora and fauna, lush and well-maintained nature reserves, a delightful array of mouth-watering cuisine, as well as a long list of shopping hotspots.

There are a multitude of reasons to make Malaysia your second home. Come and see for yourself the splendour it has to offer. We look forward to welcoming you with open hearts.

WHAT IS MALAYSIA MY SECOND HOME?

Visitors to Malaysia can stay in the country for up to three (3) months on a Single Entry Visa. For those who wish to stay longer or reside in Malaysia, they can join our Malaysia My Second Home (MM2H) program. This program offers eligible international participants a renewable social visit pass with multiple entry-visa into the country.

Having gone through several facelifts over the years since its launch in 2002, the current version of the MM2H Programme sees the introduction of 4 new categories—Platinum, Gold, Silver, as well as the Special Economic Zone/Special Financial Zone (SEZ/SFZ).

The final category has been added to attract investors interested in establishing themselves in the Special Economic Zone and the Special Financial Zone.

Each category comes with its own criteria and benefits for participants choosing to relocate to Malaysia. This revitalized MM2H programme looks to deliver an enhanced experience for prospective participants looking to make Malaysia their second home.

WHY MALAYSIA?

Moving to a different country is never easy. Getting used to a different kind of culture, weather, system, language, and food can be a little daunting. But if you have already successfully made the move to this tropical paradise, then congratulations on the wise decision!

If you are still deciding if you should move here, then we have compiled a list of the top reasons why you should move to Malaysia.

Economic and Political Stability

As a country, Malaysia has experienced many years of economic and political stability. Despite the current global economic conditions, Malaysia is not expected to suffer an extreme downturn.

Residential Ownership

Foreigners can most definitely buy a residence in Malaysia. What's good to know is that Malaysia's property market is well regulated, with financial and practical oversight—from the construction to the property loans. It is possible to obtain a loan locally, and some companies can arrange short-term rentals and care for your home while you are away.

Natural Beauty

Malaysia is one of the lowest populated countries in Asia, with plenty of unspoiled countryside to explore as well as jungles, hill stations, tropical islands, and even beaches. Nature lovers will enjoy how this country is teeming with varieties of flora and fauna.

Infrastructure

Malaysia has a good infrastructure which is continuously being improved. There is a world-class airport, modern capital city, excellent road network, and even a reliable public transport system in the country's capital. The nation also has a strong commitment to become a leading IT hub for the region.

Safety

Malaysia is a relatively safe country, with its different races living together in harmony. However, as with any country, decent common sense and vigilance should still be practiced.

Medical

Health services are efficient and prepared to cater to your healthcare needs, while our private hospitals offer world-class treatment at a substantially lower cost than many other countries.

Education

Malaysia's universities are amongst the highest ranked in the Southeast Asian region, offering those interested with an opportunity to gain high quality education while being immersed in a diverse and welcoming community. There are also reputable private schools available in all major towns, with English as the medium of instruction.

Food

Most foreigners enjoy the local cuisine made up of food from the Malay, Chinese, and Indian cultures. There are also numerous restaurants offering food from around the world. Foodies can also enjoy sampling the food that varies from state to state, as well as the abundance of tropical fruits that grow throughout the year.

The People and Language

The Malaysian people are warm and friendly, and most of them speak English. When you are here, there is no need to set yourself up in an expatriate enclave; wherever you settle down, you are sure to find no problems settling in and making friends.

The Weather

Malaysia is hot, but not the hottest of countries. However, since most homes, cars, and shopping areas are air-conditioned, it is easy to escape the worst of it.

Cost of Living

If you are on a pension from a developed country, you will find that Malaysia offers a better standard of living than in your own country. Remittances from abroad are not taxed, making settling in Malaysia even more attractive.

Shopping and Other Entertainment

From gorgeous small handicrafts to high end, name brand products, Malaysia has it all. Its opulent malls are modern and air conditioned, making it the perfect place to relax and escape from the tropical heat. These spaces are also prime spots to rejuvenate or take part in activities for the whole family.

PROPERTY IN MALAYSIA

The Malaysian property market has been steadily appreciating each year. According to annual data from the National Property Information Center, property prices increased by 24.6% over the 10-year period between 2014 and the second quarter of 2024, with growth observed every year.

Simultaneously, since the third quarter of 2024, the Kuala Lumpur Property Index has been continuously rising. Favourable factors include the advancement of various large-scale construction projects and market stability, which help solidify the demand for properties and accelerate market recovery.

Therefore, as house prices rise due to various factors, it confirms the principle that 'buying a house can preserve value'.

In fact, Malaysia's property prices stand out among many Asian countries, with an expected annual growth rate exceeding 4.5%. Kuala Lumpur—the nation's capital—and Penang are popular areas for property investment.

TYPES OF PROPERTY IN MALAYSIA

Malaysia is not just a Southeast Asian country; it is also a tourism and transportation hub in the region, as well as an education center in Asia.

Investment Properties

Malaysia property prices have enormous appreciation potential. This type of property mainly attracts investors whose primary purpose is investment. Given that real estate is a tangible investment, high-return investment properties are more readily accepted.

Education-oriented Properties

Education-oriented properties have suddenly emerged as an attractive property type for buyers in recent years. Parents often consider purchasing properties in school districts for the convenience of their children's current or future overseas education.

Retirement Properties

Malaysia is an ideal place for retirement. This type of property has higher environmental requirements, including natural scenery and cultural care. It also has requirements for local medical conditions and convenience, as well as whether the holiday house design is suitable for the middle-aged and elderly.

Holiday Properties

Holiday properties are occupied for shorter periods, mainly for vacationing, leisure, relaxation, and family enjoyment. They are often located near mountains or seas and may have other supporting sports facilities such as golf courses.

PENANG: A PREFERRED RETIREMENT DESTINATION

GEORGE TOWN: Penang offers a unique allure as a retirement destination because of the numerous hospitals and a lifestyle that blends modernity with the yesteryears.

PETRONAS TWIN TOWERS

Standing at a height of 451.9 metres, this gleaming structure of steel and glass is the world's tallest twin tower building. It is the centrepiece of the Kuala Lumpur City Centre, a prime attraction consisting of the Suria KLCC Shopping Mall, star rated hotels, a landscaped park, and a convention centre. Enjoy the exhilaration of standing at the Skybridge on the 41st floor and the Viewing Deck on the 86th floor. Admission is on a first-come-first-served basis.

REQUIREMENTS AND REGULATIONS

PARAGLIDING BUKIT JUGRA, SELANGOR

This recreational and competitive adventure sport has become a must-try experience for anyone who'd come to Bukit Jugra.
